

Title: Cheshire Moon

Artist: Terry Warthen

Contact: twarthen@pemtel.net

One Sentence about the piece: This piece was totally created from objects in my “shed”.

Artist Biography: Terry Warthen primarily works with stone and copper. She has dabbled in various mediums through classes at the Corcoran School of Art, Christopher Newport University and the YMCA. She is always looking for creative outlets.

Artist Statement: You never know where you will end up when you start to assemble stuff! I enjoy discovering just what I have stockpiled in my building and seeing where creativity leads me.