

Window on the World: April Blooms

By Matt Gentry

Artist Statement: As a plein air painter I am captivated by living in the moment. This piece is a plein air painting made in the garden in April. It is my goal to transport the viewer to the garden a few months before this Simply Elemental exhibit, when the blooms were blooming and the trees were budding.