

Dragonfly Fortunes for the Gardens

By Linda Correll

Artist Statement: The driving force group creates an internal common component for each creation. This year it is bamboo. Our theme is Bamboozled. The sections of the bamboo and flexibility of the materials provided a basis for creating a dragonfly. They always look magical when dashing around the ponds and wetlands. There are many myths on the good fortune they bring to your house and gardens.