

Rabbit Trails and Tales

Linda Correll

Media: Metal and enamel on glass

Art Statement: For many generations the Rabbit has fascinated the whims of many creative minds. The Rabbit is the focus of literary works, visual art, story-telling and film. Superstitions and symbolism related to the rabbit are apparent in many cultures and from those, visual art is created to depict the message. The rabbit is clever, prolific, and a sign of spring. The rabbit and the moon are frequently used to signify rebirth or resurrection. This window art is to highlight the rabbit in the garden in hopes of provoking a memory about rabbit trails and tales you may have experienced in your past. Enjoy!

Artist Bio-Linda Correll is native to Southwest Virginia and has experienced a successful career in scientific research and management at Virginia Tech. She enjoys participating in art workshops in different media and the camaraderie with other artists. She primarily focuses on photography and has exhibited her works in Blacksburg, Floyd, Salem, Va., and Cary, N.C. Correll is a member of the Backyard Stone Carvers, Blacksburg Regional Art Association, New River Gourd Society, Roanoke and NRV Exposure Photography Meetup groups.