

Glass Vines Sue Hossack

Medium: stained glass, copper, solder, wire, plastic beads.
Description: I work in stained glass as well as acrylic so I wanted to do something using my glass techniques. I created leaves and flowers to represent the Hahn garden, and wove them together to look like vines growing on a trellis.

BIO/Contact sue@ot-care.com <http://suehossack50.wixsite.com/portfolio>
Facebook: @SueBeeStudio Sue began painting after she retired in 2013. She has been doing stained glass work for about 20 years. She has a studio in Newport at the old Bank Building, with two other artists, which is called the Art Bank and contains a small gallery.