

Koi Pond Kiley Martin

Medium: Acrylic Paint on Glass Window

This art work was inspired by the koi pond in the Hahn gardens. Some of the fish right along the surface while others are just out of view in the murky pond. It is a simplistic model to incorporate the environment into the painting.

Bio: I am a Biological Sciences and Experimental Neuroscience major with a passion for painting in her free time.