

Thoughts from the Garden
Dollie Cottrill

This creation of etched words on glass combined with an ink floral drawing is simple in design.

A child's laughter is like a gentle breeze dancing through the Garden

Brown-eyed Susans and the laughter of children – two things that just bring a smile to my face! Dollie Cottrill, a twenty-eight year resident of Blacksburg and a recently retired principal of Price's Fork Elementary School, enjoyed playing with art supplies to create this window.
